

New Fellows Conference 2012 'Team Leadership'

09-11 May 2012
Seashells Caves House, Yallingup, WA

Applications now open

Applications are invited from Fellows in all training Regions for selection to attend the 2012 New Fellows Conference in Yallingup, Western Australia. To be eligible, Fellows must be within eight years from Fellowship and attending the 2012 Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM).

Selection will be undertaken by the Regional and National Committees and the Faculty of Pain Medicine.

The object of the New Fellows Conference is to provide each participant with skills to assist them in dealing with their professional lives and relationships during their work in anaesthesia and pain medicine. Special emphasis will be placed on professional excellence, leadership and involvement in College and Faculty affairs.

The 2012 conference theme is 'Team Leadership' and proposed sessions within this broad theme include:

Leadership in a Crisis – facilitated by Dr Mary Pinder, Intensivist

- This session will discuss leadership skills and leading a multidisciplinary debriefing when things go wrong.

Team Challenges – facilitated by the Merribrook Corporate Events Group

- This outdoor activity challenge promises to be fun and a great way to get to know other delegates, as well as putting your leadership skills to good use in solving the many and varied challenges.

"As One" Leadership Training – facilitated by Ms Anveeta Shrivastava
Director and Consultant at Deloitte

- Based on a major global initiative, this workshop is designed for you to determine your leadership style, and show you how you can apply various leadership and follower archetypes to your own organisation. It will show you new ways to lead and get your team working together.

The College and Faculty will be responsible for the costs of this seminar; however the applicant is responsible for the cost of travelling to and from Perth and all ASM registration and associated fees. This conference is strictly for Fellows and families will not be permitted to attend the conference.

Written applications, with accompanying curriculum vitae and the names of two referees, should be forwarded to the relevant Regional Committee, National Committee or Faculty of Pain Medicine by Friday, 04 November 2011.
